NEWS YOU CAN USE

WEEKLY CONNECTION WITH GARY OLSEN

On August 7th we will be celebrating Behavioral Health Professional's (BHP) Day and I want to take this opportunity to thank all our BHPs for their dedication to their jobs and those we serve. BHPs possess a unique blend of compassion, resilience, and expertise as they confront complex challenges daily, providing support and guidance to those coping with mental health issues, substance use disorders, and emotional struggles.

BHPs, as with many of our employees, serve as a lifeline for individuals and families navigating difficult times. You show Person-Centered Service each and every day along with championing our Core Values: Dignity, Integrity, Accountability, Partnership, and Continuous Improvement.

To each of our BHP's, thank you for your dedication, your empathy, and your unwavering commitment to making a difference. Your work is not only essential but also deeply appreciated by those whose lives you touch.

TWINNING AT WORK

Ever Had This Happen and It's Not Planned?

We plan a lot of fun dress up days at NCHC throughout the year, but when it happens when you don't plan it, you just have to smile. Adrean and Brandi thought it was pretty cool that they were wearing the same colors at work last week AND unique hot pink shoes! Fun! Thank for submitting your photo!
